Question 2 | The ls command

The screenshot shows a macOS Terminal window titled "Terminal". The window has a dark theme with light-colored text. It displays a history of terminal commands and their results. The commands are color-coded: green for shell prompts, blue for command names, and red for file paths. The results are in blue. The timestamp for each entry is at the end of the line.

```
⌚ cd □ cpu/0 ◆ 12:11
⌚ cd Downloads □ 12:11
⌚ cd ../../ □/Downloads 12:11
⌚ pwd /home ◆ 12:12
/home
⌚ cd jay/Documents /home ◆ 12:12
⌚ pwd □/Documents 12:12
